City River Cruise Tour

1 Old Hill Street Police Station

The Old Hill Street Police Station in Singapore is a historic landmark celebrated for its vibrant, rainbow-colored windows and distinctive neoclassical architecture.

2 Singapore River Cruise at Clarke Quay Jetty (20 mins)

The river cruise offers a scenic ride along Singapore's historic river, highlighting vibrant architecture and the city's rich heritage. Capture views of the Merlion, Marina Bay Sands, and the Financial District as you go.

Capture stunning photos of Clifford Pier and the iconic Merlion statue, only at Singapore's waterfront.

4 Singapore's Chinatown

Discover Singapore's Chinatown, a vibrant district where historic temples stand alongside trendy bars and shops. Once an enclave for Chinese immigrants, it's now a melting pot of old and new, where every corner tells a story. Immerse yourself in the rich cultural tapestry, where tradition and modernity intertwine seamlessly.

5 Buddha Tooth Relic Temple

Built in 2007, the temple gets its name from what the Buddhists regard as the left canine tooth of Buddha, which has been recovered from his funeral pyre in Kushinagar, India and displayed on the temple's grounds. The Buddha Tooth Relic is housed in a giant stupa made from 320 kilograms of gold.
